Rear Admiral R. H. Hillenkoetter
Washington
D. C.

Dear Admiral Hillenkoetter:

About three months ago I saw you briefly in connection with an application I had made earlier for a position with C. I. G. I understood at the time that there was no opening in the area in which I was particularly interested, but that something would probably develop later.

I should be very glad to hear what the position is now. I am spending several days each month in Washington as consultant to the Director of the Budget, and, if you wish, can drop in to see you at your convenience.

Yours sincerely,

STA
